

We Serve

From the desk of President Lion Ron Hansen

Fellow Lions,

Summer is fast growing to a close and soon we'll be back at Johnson Hall.

Our summer has been busy as it always seems to be. This club is a very generous and giving group of people. We volunteer all over the place. It is sometimes hard to keep track of all we do to help those in need.

The ramps are going well along with food trucks, hearing and sight screenings and so on.

The Veterans' Memorial Causeway project seems to be sorting its way through the beaurecratic obstacles. We will be one proud group of people when it starts to take shape. Those of us who can keep Monday, September 9 reserved to help clear the brush and cattails on the island, please be there by 10 A.M. Hedge trimmers, loping shears, gloves and waders are some of the tools one might bring to get the job done. We will be assisted by trustees from the Muskegon County jail who will remove the trimmings from the island. See you there!! ~Lion President Ron

From the desk of Lion Dennis Cobler, PID

Hello Lions:

I missed the last issue, was having some problems with pneumonia so am back not quite up to snuff but much better than last month.

We have a busy schedule ahead of us with the Causeway finally moving off dead center as well as Candy Days and our biggest fund raiser of the year, the dreaded raffle calendar sales. The calendar committee is counting on each and every one of you to do your best as 1000 calendars need to be sold. I am a bit concerned as I will be gone a couple of weeks in September (USA/Canada Forum in Kansas and a vision mission in Jamaica) plus a couple of weeks in October for a personal vacation. This means that the committee will definitely need your help more than the previous years.

Membership in a Lions Club should be a two way street, being a benefit to both the member and the community. Many members, not so much in our club however, do not see their membership in either category. They see only the perceived notion that they have to attend meetings not realizing that the meetings are really a gathering of friends and a time to learn about the upcoming service opportunities that make for a better place to live. If a member does not take these opportunities to donate some time for both the service projects and the occasional fund raiser they miss the essence of a true membership in their club. Moral of the story? The Muskegon Northside Lions need each and every member to do what they can to be part of the greater good which benefits our community, our club and without knowing it ourselves as well. ~Till next month, Dennis.

An Editorial by:

Lion Ed Weessies,
PCT, Lions Tale Editor

Fellow Lions,

At our last meeting in August, Lion President Hansen was taken to task for not addressing members as "LION." It has been suggested (not in our club) that we stop the practice as it could be a deterrent for potential, especially younger members. The same goes for wearing vests. We ARE Lions and should be proud be called LION and we should be proud to wear a Lions' vest. We should wear our Lions' lapel pin as often as practical. It is great to be a LION!!

As I asked, committee chairpersons are to submit a list of dates of their events and submit a report of any event they chair to me so that I can report it to Lions' International and submit them to the club, district, state and Lions International publications. If you need copies of the event reporting form let me know. A picture is worth a thousand words so they say. Please have someone with a digital camera at your events.

It is hoped that our members read the "Lions' Tale" to see what is going and/or has happened. Also the periodic notices sent via E-mail. All this is done to keep you informed in more real time rather than making it as an announcement at a meeting. Lion Frank DiPiazza, President Ron Hansen, Lion Dennis Cobler PID and myself put in a lot of time to make sure you are the best informed Lions. I know Tail Twister Hoppa has used the "Tale" for checking who has read it and that is O.K. For those who get his questions correct makes those of us involved the production of the "Tale" feel our efforts worthwhile. I know that for some the district "Pulse", the Multiple District "Lion Pride" and International's "Lion" are a lot of reading but none the less contain lots of good information telling us all just what our fellow Lions are doing to SERVE. Maybe we can find projects just by reading these publications. Try it.

With fall coming our fund raising projects are winding down EXCEPT for our most important one – our Raffle Calendar. If at all possible, Lions Bradfield, D. Cobler and DiPiazza will have the calendars ready for you to get busy selling them. Having four months to get them sold should make it a bit easier. Remember. They make great gifts for family and friends. So far my wife and grandchildren have been winners. Make someone happy.

We will have a few community service projects including ramps, food trucks, work on the Veterans' Memorial Causeway, assisting in the clean-up at Central Elementary school. As these events are scheduled you will be notified at meeting and via E-mail. Please help out!!!!

In November, the Lions of Michigan will be offering its outstanding Leadership Institute at Higgins Lake. In February, The Lions of Michigan Forum will be held in Lansing. After that it will be the district and state conventions where we conduct our business and have a lot of fun with friends new and old. More information on these next month.

Lastly. Please keep Lion Doug Schneider in your thoughts as he leads our district as governor. He has a lot of great ideas for Lions to better serve. If you get a chance to help him, do it.

Yours in Lionism,

Lion Ed Weessies, Editor, Muskegon Northside "Lions Tale"

A District Governor's Analogy

Lion Doug Schneider, DG

Well, I have just finished two months as 11-C1 District Governor. My predecessors told me that this year will go by fast! No truer a comment has been made.

I think back to the District 11-C1 convention in March 2013, when I was elected as the governor. It was at the Awards Banquet, the business meeting was done, the elections completed and as I sat from my vantage point, I looked around at all the people in the room. Other than being Lions, I tried to find another commonality. It wasn't the white, blue, or possibly green jackets! It wasn't the suits that some of the other Lions were wearing. It wasn't the beautiful gowns or dresses the women were wearing! So ... what was it?

The commonality that I saw was that most of the Lions attending had a spouse, girlfriend, best friend, or significant other. Maybe that person was all of the above, maybe not!

As I am sitting next to my spouse/girlfriend/best friend, I pondered and wanted to ask those Lions the following:

- What would have happened had you not asked that person for the "first dance?"
- What would have happened had you not asked for that "first date?"
- What would have happened had you not asked for that "first kiss?"
- What would have happened if you just "didn't ask?"

What would have changed? Would that relationship have ever developed? Would you be where you wanted to be?

In the case of the best friend, as I call it, "your jammin' buddy", you know or remember that person that you met in grammar/high school, college, military, or your next door neighbor:

- What if you hadn't said that first "hello?"
- What if you hadn't extended that "first handshake?"
- What if you never found that "common ground" that now makes you best friends?

What would have changed? Would that relationship have ever developed? Would you be where you wanted to be?

Now, what does the above have to do with Lions? Myself, I believe the above has A LOT to do with Lions!

Think back in your Lions endeavors:

- What if that Lion didn't tell you about Lions?
- What if that Lion didn't ask you to attend a meeting?
- What if that Lion didn't ask you to help on a project?
- WHAT ... if that Lion hadn't given you that membership application?

What would have changed? Would you be where you wanted to be? Would you feel fulfilled? What about your community, is it better? What about the people's life you changed?

Now, think about your community and YOUR LIONS CLUB:

- What if you don't tell the next person you know about Lions?
- What if you don't ask that person to your next meeting?
- What if you don't ask that person to help on your next project?
- What if you don't give that person a Lions membership application?
- What will happen to your club and community if you don't ask what needs to be done?
- *What if you just DON'T ASK?

Will your club or community be better if you FORGET TO ASK? Are you willing to take that chance of not asking?

The minutes in the newsletters are preliminary copies, and have yet to be approved by the Board of Directors.
